INTERVIEWING YOUR AU PAIR OR NANNY

Best questions for interviewing your next childcare provider

A thorough, thoughtful interview is a must when hiring your childcare provider. Although interviewing candidates can be time-consuming, it is the most important step you can take as a parent to ensure your children are in the hands of a capable, responsible person. When it comes time to sit down with your au pair or nanny candidate—either for a phone, Skype, or in-person discussion—we recommend using the following list of questions as a guide.

We've included questions related to :

- An applicant's general childcare experience
- Her personality, maturity level and interests
- Her expectations with relation to your family's needs
- Specific ages and needs of your children (infant, toddler, school-aged child, special needs child)

Before the interview begins, mark the questions that are relevant to your family's situation, and note that questions marked with an asterisk () should be reserved for candidates whose English competency is more advanced. We wish you luck during the interview process and hope it leads you to a caregiver you feel confident and excited about!*

QUESTIONS ABOUT A CANDIDATE'S GENERAL CHILDCARE EXPERIENCE

What were the ages of the children under your care?

What were your specific responsibilities? (Refer to each childcare experience separately.)

What was the most difficult part of that job? What did you like most about that job?

What do you like most about taking care of children?

What do you find most challenging about caring for children?
